

TOURISMLink's two-year pilot study is over and we're marking the occasion with a large-scale review conference in Brussels on June 24. The conference will be an opportunity to celebrate the pioneering work we've done with our partners and the travel businesses involved in the project, and to look at the future of the platform.

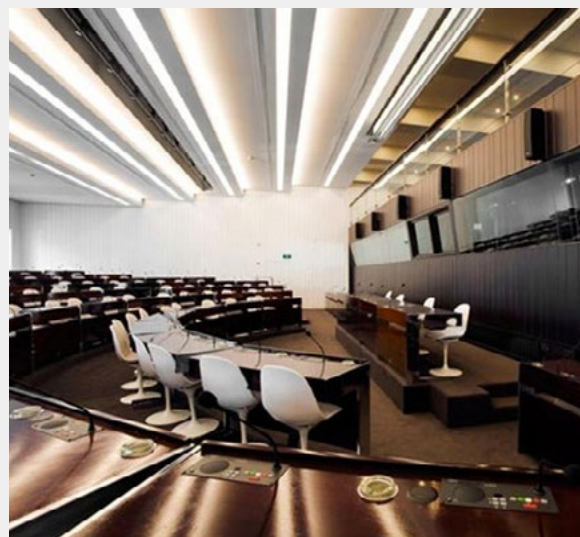

Hope to see you there!

PROJECT NEWS

SEE YOU AT THE CONFERENCE!

The review conference will be held at The Square, Brussels, on June 24, 2014. Join delegates from the European Commission and tour operators and travel agents across Europe for a day of presentations and round table discussions. Expect talks on tourism ICTs and a special session dedicated to the travel companies which participated in the TOURISMLink pilot project. Find out what we've learned and what the future holds.

READ MORE

WHY YOU LOVE TRAVELLING IN EUROPE: VIDEO

We took to the streets of Brussels to find out what people love the most about travelling. And the answers? Diverse: from eating and drinking with friends to spending tranquil time by the ocean. European tourism is nothing if not varied and it is this diversity which TOURISMLink aims to harness and make accessible to travel agents and tour operators.

READ MORE

Stay connected to TOURISMLink on Facebook and Twitter for updates on the project, blogs from our team and the latest news from the world of online tourism.

FOLLOW US:

An initiative of the

